Mission

College of Marin's commitment to educational excellence is rooted in providing equitable opportunities and fostering success for all members of our diverse community by offering:

- preparation for transfer to four-year colleges and universities
- associate degrees and certificates
- career technical education
- basic skills improvement
- English as a second language
- lifelong learning
- community and cultural enrichment

College of Marin responds to community needs by offering student-centered programs and services in a supportive, innovative learning environment that promotes social, racial, and environmental justice.

The District believes that our commitment and accountability to diversity, equity, and belonging enriches the District's mission and supports students in achieving their educational goals.

The mission is evaluated on an annual basis and revised regularly.

About COM

College of Marin is accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), 428 J Street, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95814, (415) 506-0234, an institutional accrediting body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation and the U.S. Department of Education. Additional information about accreditation, including the filing of complaints against member institutions, can be found at: www.accjc.org.

The College is approved for foreign student education by the United States Immigration Services, and veterans' education by the California Department of Education, Bureau of School Approvals, The University of California, the California State University, and other four-year colleges and universities accept units of credit in transfer courses completed at College of Marin.

Academic Freedom

Academic freedom protects a teacher's right to teach and a student's right to learn, and is necessary in order for College of Marin to fulfill its mission of providing excellent educational opportunities for all members of our diverse community.

The exercise of academic freedom allows society to enjoy the benefits of honest intellectual discourse and the transmittal of knowledge. College of Marin's academic employees must be free from pressures and demands that restrict intellectual discovery and the dissemination of knowledge. The college shall promote and protect an educational climate in which teachers and students can assert their ideas without fear of reprisal. By the same token, College of Marin faculty and students have a responsibility, under the guidelines of academic freedom, to engage in teaching and learning that honors, respects, and supports divergent viewpoints.
