Math, English, and ESL Placement Information

- With the AB 705 legislation, students are not required to take a test to enroll in math, English, or ESL classes at College of Marin. California Community Colleges use high school GPA and guided self-placement to help students select their math, English and ESL classes. The best way to select the right math, English, or ESL class is to meet with a counselor. A counselor will help you determine the best choice for your individualized educational goal.
