

COLLEGE OF MARIN
invites applications for the position of:

Drama (Technical Theatre) Instructor
Part-time Temporary Pool

SALARY: See Position Description
OPENING DATE: 08/19/22
CLOSING DATE: Continuous
DESCRIPTION:

NEXT SCREENING DATE: September 11, 2022

DESCRIPTION

The Drama Department offers a solid foundation for further professional study in performance and technical theatre as well as an opportunity for students to explore and express themselves creatively. Two main stage productions and two productions in our Studio Theatre are offered each year. We also present a student-directed series of Brown Bag Theatre productions and an active improv troupe, which performs throughout the school year.

The Drama Department gives students experience in acting, directing, writing, improvisation, voice technique, stage movement, stage combat, designing, lighting, costumes, makeup, set construction, history and literature.

Note: All application materials must be received by the Next Screening Date listed above in order to be considered. Applications received after this date will remain on file until the next screening OR for up to one year from the date of application, whichever occurs first. If your application becomes inactive after one year, you may re-apply to the pool at that time.

Screenings and interviews can be conducted at any point in time as the hiring department necessitates. Once a screening has occurred, applicants will be notified of their status.

PLEASE BE SURE TO REVIEW THE REQUIRED APPLICATION DOCUMENTS SECTION BELOW TO ENSURE THAT YOU ARE ATTACHING EVERYTHING REQUIRED.

College of Marin's commitment to educational excellence is rooted in providing equitable opportunities and fostering success for all members of our diverse community. Please describe how you would contribute to creating a welcoming and supportive environment for students from historically underrepresented and marginalized groups.

FOREIGN DEGREE HOLDERS:

Where applicable, foreign degree credentials must be evaluated by a third party to determine the equivalent U.S. degree and major. Please review the following points carefully to determine whether you must submit a Foreign Credential Evaluation (FCE) with your application.

Evaluations should provide the name of the institution attended, a description of your credentials, the major of study, and the U.S. equivalent for each credential. For a list of evaluating agencies, visit the State of California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

- If you satisfy the minimum educational requirement with a degree that was granted in the U.S., but your previous degree(s) was obtained from a foreign institution, you do not need to attach a Foreign Credential Evaluation (FCE) for your previous degree(s). You must, however, attach a copy of a (translated) transcript for the previous degree. For additional clarification of acceptable transcripts, please contact Human Resources.
- If your degree that satisfies the minimum educational requirement was obtained from a foreign institution, you must submit an FCE for that degree and any other foreign degrees leading up to it.
- If you are asserting equivalence (see Minimum Qualifications for Faculty/Administrators above) because your degree does not specifically match the minimum educational requirements as listed and any of your degrees was obtained outside the U.S., you must attach an FCE for your foreign degree(s).
