

This web site provides a number of services for individuals seeking employment as a faculty, support staff or manager at a California Community College.

The California Community Colleges is the largest higher education system in the nation. It is comprised of 72 districts, 112 colleges and enrolls more than 2.6 million students. Community colleges provide basic skills education, workforce training and courses that prepare students for transfer to four-year universities. The colleges also offer opportunities for personal enrichment and lifelong learning.

How do I get a copy of my credential?

The Chancellor's Office maintains archives regarding issuance of community college credentials. Our service is for those whose credential is lost, damaged, or stolen. The Chancellor's Office can only accept a request from the holder of the credential. No third party requests are accepted. The credential holder must provide the information listed in the request form to
