

How to Read Your Assessment Results in the Results Explorer Tab

You can look at your assessment results by CSLO or semester(s) using the Results Explorer tab or in the Assessment Library. The Results Explorer will allow you to isolate the performance of specific SLOs over the course of a single semester or many semesters. The assessment library shows you the assessment results for your courses over single or multiple semesters.

First Log on eLumen:

Sign into your mycom account. At the left you will see the eLumen tab under the applications column. Click on it. This will open up your eLumen account. Double check that you are logged in as faculty.

To look at your assessment results right after you have completed scoring the assessment(s), select the Actions menu in the upper right corner of the Rubric or Scorecard view and choose Results Explorer. This will show you the current semester assessment results.

Table View

The Chart View allows you to see your score and the aggregated scores for all sections of the course. The dotted line are the aggregate scores for all sections of the course. This allows you to compare your scores with other scores for the course.

The Table View shows the same information but with a different visual layout. Your scores are the larger printed percentages and the smaller percentages are the aggregated scores for the course.

The table View also shows any faculty reflections that have been completed for that course. Faculty have the option of completing these anonymously.

Drag your cursor over the table and a pop up window will show you the performance of each SLO. In the upper right you will see a print icon if you wish to print your results.

To isolate specific CSLOs over a single semester or group of semesters, follow the steps below.

1. To view the results of any assessment you have ever used, click on the Results Explorer section. All of your assessments will be listed under the filter tabs. Use the SLO filter to narrow your results for the specific SLO(s) you want to see.

The screenshot shows the 'Results Explorer' section of a software interface. The top navigation bar includes a user profile (Robyn Wood as Faculty), a course selector (Fine & Visual Arts), and a status indicator (Proxy Enabled). Below this is a menu with 'Courses' (Spring 2021), 'SLOs & Assessments', 'Curriculum', 'Results Explorer' (highlighted), and 'Strategic Planning'. The main area has tabs for 'Results Explorer', 'Available Reports', and 'Document Library'. The 'Filters' section is expanded, showing 'SLO class' as 'CSLOs'. The 'SLOs' dropdown menu is open, displaying a list of SLOs for 'ART130 - Drawing and Composition I' and 'ART131 - Drawing and Composition II'. A red arrow points to the 'None Selected' dropdown in the SLOs section. The 'Options' section includes a checkbox for 'Planned to future terms' and buttons for 'Select All' and 'Select None'. A search bar is also present.

Note: By default the SLO filter tab will select every SLO for every course you have taught, as well as the versions of the SLOs if they have been revised. Remember to first click on the select none tab, then scroll down to find the SLOs you want. Click on them to select them and they will turn blue. You will see how many SLOs you have selected in parenthesis in the SLO box.
